Ascension Day Services

Trinity Church, Sunday, June 1, 1924

The Sir Knights will assemble in the Armory not later than two-thirty o'clock, when the lines will be formed. The Commandery will leave Masonic Temple at half-past three SHARP and march direct to Trinity Church.

The ladies will go direct to the church, where seats will be reserved for them. The services will commence at four o'clock.

At the close of the church service the Sir Knights and their ladies will proceed to the Copley-Plaza Hotel where refreshments will be served. After the entertainment the Commandery will parade back to Masonic Temple.

Absolutely no provision will be made at the hotel except for those who signify their intention to be present on or before Thursday, May 29, 1924.

You are urgently requested to reply by Thursday, May 29th.

Full Knight Templar uniform with gauntlets.

Your Commander hopes that a large number of Sir Knights will be present on this occasion. Sir Knights are entitled to two tickets, admitting himself and lady to the hotel.

Tickets can be obtained from Sir Knight William P. Bullard at 110 Tremont Street. Telephone Main 0825.

Courteously yours,

GEORGE T. WILEY, Commander.

New Year's Party AND Ladies' Night

The Event of the Season

An old-fashioned New Year's Party and Ladies' Night will be held by Boston Commandery, K. T., on December 31, 1924, at the Masonic Temple, Cor. Boylston and Tremont Streets.

The following program has been arranged: At 6 p. m., reception in Corinthian Hall to the Em. Commander and suite. At 6.45 in the Banquet Hall, a New Year's Dinner will be served. At 8.30 in Ionic Hall, an entertainment will be given which will keep you laughing for one hour. At 9.30 in Gothic Hall, dancing will commence including old-fashioned square dances. At 11.45 in Gothic Hall, there will be singing to welcome in the New Year, in charge of Sir Knight Anshelm. Dancing will end at 12.30.

Reservations at four dollars each should be secured at once from Sir Knight Wm. P. Bullard, 110 Tremont Street, Room 527.

(NOTE—There will be a diagram made of the Banquet Hall, showing the arrangement of tables, so that each Sir Knight will know in advance the exact location of his seat. Each ticket will contain a coupon numbered for the table assigned. Round tables seating six, or long tables seating eight, people may be reserved.)

Make checks payable to W. P. Bullard, Chairman.

Em. Sir GEO. T. WILEY, Commander.

Sir Knight FRANK O. CLARK, Generalissimo.

Sir Knight CHAS. L. HAMILTON, Captain General.

Triennial Pilgrimage to Seattle

JULY 1925

Boston Commandery voted to attend the Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment at Seattle, July 28th to 31st, 1925. Are you intending to join the Pilgrimage, of which an itinerary has been mailed to you? Early registration will greatly assist your committee in completing arrangements.

Bowling Teams

In order to arouse more interest in bowling, also to furnish an incentive, the Commandery is to offer a cup, which will be called the Boston Commandery Bowling Cup, the Cup to be kept at all times in the possession of the Commandery on exhibition preferably in the Armory. This Cup is offered for the highest single string, and each year the winner shall have his name together with his score engraved thereon, thereby making a permanent record of his achievement. This, of course, will be a source of pride and satisfaction to him, also to his friends and Sir Knights in Boston Commandery.

If any Sir Knight of Boston Commandery would like to offer a similar Cup, under similar requirements, for the highest three strings, the Commander will be pleased to see that this Cup will be suitably engraved with the donor's name, and this would be a permanent record of their generosity as well as a record of the achievement of the bowler.

Any Sir Knight of Boston Commandery is eligible to bowl for these Cups, but must bowl at least two-thirds of the games and can win only one Cup a season.

Bowling is a clean, manly sport, and appeals to many young men as a recreation and a healthful exercise. We believe that having a bowling team in our Commandery will help bring Sir Knights together for many enjoyable evenings. The bowlers meet every Monday evening at Recreation Alleys, 615 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., at 8 o'clock P. M.
